Oxygen condensing device

Active oxygen or ionizing

With an aim of removing impurities from the air and destroy harmful microorganisms

“A few moments later a number of workers from our sphere arrived, bringing small apparatuses, which, due to the rays they were emitting in all directions, looked to me like small instruments of great electrical potency .” Alexander explained: “these friends are in charge of performing the condensation of oxygen throughout the house. The environment for the materialization of an entity from the plane invisible to human eyes calls for a high level of ozone: moreover, such an operation is crucial in order to exterminate all larvae and microscopic residue of low order activity. The relative ‘ozonization’ of the inner area is necessary as a bactericidal procedure.”

Psychoscope

- ✓ Thins gauze screen (around 1m<sup>2</sup>)
- ✓ Project images from the mind of workers from both sides of life

Magnetic device for mediumistic contact

- ✓ Small device installed by spiritual benefactors in mediums with a spirit of sacrifice and love of neighbor, which keeps them in tune with each other.
- ✓ Kind of a funnel of light.
- ✓ Ultrasensitive magnetic device with which the medium live in constant contact with the responsible for the spiritual work he or she accomplishes

Device for communication with the incarnates

- ✓ This equipment is composed of "... a large crystal globe of approximately two meters high, enveloped in the bottom, by the long series of wires that connect to a small device, which is identical to our speakers" describes André Luiz in Nosso Lar

- ✓ The main purpose is the communication with incarnates, not always located in the mediumship meeting, to meet specific purposes
- ✓ It consists of insulating material of mental energies.

Devices for sending and receiving messages

- ✓ Quoted in the book Sex and Destiny
- ✓ The device had been used in an emergency situation during the care of an incarnate that was under an obsessive process.

I had not been able to listen to the minutiae of the obscure plan that was forming. Claudio's thoughts (incarnate in process of assistance) and the vampire twined themselves in strange imprecise purposes. I dispatched fast communication to brother Felix, stressing the need for our meeting, gathering the answer that did not please me. He would come by the evening, not earlier, in view of the overriding obligations he had. XAVIER, F.C.
